

Food Safe Level 1 Course

Foodsafe - Level One Course

We all have questions when it comes to food safety. What should we be concerned with when handling food in our kitchens? What's safe and what isn't in our day-to-day work in the kitchen?

Come learn the basics about safe food handling in a friendly classroom environment. This is a provincially recognized course taught by qualified instructors. It is suitable for individuals who have a grade 8 or higher reading comprehension level.

WHEN: Sat, March 31, 2012, 9:00am - 5:00pm

WHERE: Greater Vancouver Food Bank Society,
1150 Raymur Ave., Vancouver BC

Directions at: <http://www.communitykitchens.ca/> under "Contact Us"

COST: Sliding Scale $50. – $95. per person

REGISTRATION: Contact Darlene Tanaka, 604-216-2325 or darlenet@foodbank.bc.ca, (or complete & send in the registration form available in the "What's Hot" section of our website <http://www.communitykitchens.ca/>)

Lunch is not provided so please bring a lunch. Registration is limited to 20 per class. Payment required upon registration. Cancellations must be done at the latest, 72 hours before. No refunds for no-shows. The workshop may be rescheduled if registration numbers are not met.